E-learning for Increasing Members?

Club Leaders and Future Leaders Session 1
10:30 AM – Noon | Friday, 8 February 2019
Location: Oxford Hall, Hotel London, Rütli Str 9, Tartu

Is the new e-learning in the Zonta Leadership Program useful for having more new young club members in the Zonta clubs? Leadership development and e-learning – how is it working and which sessions are ready? Is e-learning a way for fulfilling the Zonta goal on increasing the number of members in the clubs? Share experiences and bring home new ideas!

Use the Power of Zonta's Why

Club Leaders and Future Leaders Session 2
Date: 12:30 PM– 2:00 PM | Friday, 8 February 2019
Location: Oxford Hall, Hotel London, Rütli Str 9, Tartu

Explore Simon Sinek's theory of the Golden Circle and how it applies to Zonta. Discover your underlying motivation to be a Zontian and share your passion to enrich and expand your Zonta experience.

Meet the Presenters

Jane Andersen has been a member of the Zonta Club Copenhagen I in Denmark since 2009 and a member of the Zonta International Leadership Development Committee and sub-committee since 2014.

IT, e-learning, networking, management, strategic analysing and developing are, and have been focal interest point through my working life. I am working at the IT University of Copenhagen.

Jacquie Gudmundsen is a member of Zonta International Leadership Development Committee, and is a past international committee chairman, international director and district governor.

Jacquie has 35 years in corporate training for global companies with a focus on leadership development and peak performance.

Shelli Cutting is a past governor and a three-term ZI Leadership Development team member. Shelli is currently also serving as the District 8 Service and Advocacy chair. She has owned Odyssey Sleep Works, Inc. since 1997 and goes to work each day feeling it is a privilege to help people overcome their sleep disorders.

Shelli says, "I am constantly humbled by the talent and depth of our Zonta members and love to find those who share the Zonta commitment." Shelli has been a Zontian since 2002.
